DETENTION ORDER

This matter came before the undersigned on May 14, 2007, for a scheduled detention hearing. Assistant United States Attorney David Jennings was present representing the government. Attorney Boyd Venable was present representing Defendant Chaka Sligh. The defendant was also present.

In the Court's oral ruling, a complete review and analysis of the parties' positions, issues, and facts were stated. That specific and detailed oral ruling is attached hereto and made a part of this Order as if stated herein verbatim.

For the reasons stated therein, I find, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142, that the government has met the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that the release of the defendant would pose a danger to the safety of the community. Furthermore, the Court finds that there are no conditions or combination of conditions of release that would reasonably assure the Court that the defendant would not pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant, Chaka Sligh, be detained. She is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a correction facility separate to the extent practicable from persons awaiting sentencing or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. Upon order of this Court or a Court of the United States or upon request of the attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the Defendant to the United States Marshals for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ENTER: nunc pro tunc, May 16, 2007.
